

and the bases were full, with one man out. He looked like a walk-over, but Mike, born his accustomed smile, and the crowd began to wonder. Moss, the heavy hitter, died at first from O'Neil, and Warren scored. Then Cassidy was passed along, and the bases were filled again. The smoke from a passing train enveloped the grounds as Morrison hit up a nice little one to O'Neil, who froze his man. The crowd set up a mighty yell, and Shaffer changed his mind about putting Long in the box.

Made the Welkin Ring.
The Colts did nothing until the third. Hinton had pitched on a long fly to center, and Cassidy had landed for a good hit to right. The man of the box, however, was nailed at second in an attempt to steal, and then Titman safed on a bingle. He burglarized second, and then the game scoring on Reeves' single. That started the gang again, and Sydney's brigade made the welkin ring with cowbells and things. The next and winning run was made in the sixth. Titman was the hero of this also. He handed Shuman a lemon in the shape of a safety, and there was a noise of a sacrifice as Reeves passed him to second. Hinton beat out a hit to center, and the runner got to third, and when Dobson let the boulder pass through him, it passed over the slab, and the victory was won. In the seventh inning, Kirk singled, and was sacrificed down by O'Neil, but he anchored on second pillow for the next two died by the way-side.

The Colts will leave this morning for Danville, where they will play three days, returning here to meet the Roanoke team for the first time, on Thursday. Still will probably open up in the City on the Dan. The detailed score is given below.

The Amateur League opened its season yesterday on the Byrd Park diamond in an exciting game between the Richmond Journal and The Times-Dispatch, the score being 7 to 3 in favor of the Journal.

Mr. Charles B. Cooke tossed the first ball over, and from this time until the ninth inning it was quite interesting. Dwyden pitched a good game, as did also Bowers. The team work of the Journal was good. Gardner, for The Times-Dispatch, played a pretty game in the field. W. Bauer also played his position very nicely. Stout's timely batting was one of the features. The score:

C. & O. vs. Watkins-Cottrell.

If the rest of the games to be played in the Richmond Amateur League this year are as productive of as good games as the one pulled off at Forest Hill yesterday afternoon between the Chesapeake and Ohio Office team and the team representing Watkins-Cottrell Company, there is no doubt but that the season will be the best one yet had. The game was hard fought from the start to the finish. Watkins-Cottrell scored first and C. & O. more than evened up later on. The pitching of both Moore and Winston would be hard to improve on in the amateur line. Smith, at second for C. & O., played the best all around game. The score:
